

IMA Public Health Committee White Papers on COVID-19

The Idaho Medical Association's Public Health Committee has written a series of White Papers to explain commonly misunderstood aspects of COVID-19. These White Papers are written for patients, the public, and Idaho legislators as they consider healthcare legislation. The IMA Public Health Committee is comprised of Idaho infectious disease physicians, pediatricians, family physicians, and more.

- Natural Immunity vs. Vaccine-induced immunity
- Antibody Testing Facts
- Spreading the Coronavirus - Vaccinated vs. Unvaccinated
- Medical community objects to promotion of ivermectin for prevention or treatment of COVID-19
- Understanding the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System \(VAERS\)